We had a very informative session last Friday in relation to child spectrum disorders and strategies for assisting these students. We then spent the afternoon cleaning and rearranging the music room/library. There are some furniture items no longer required outside the artroom. See John if you are interested.

It is with regret that I inform parents that Music Stars in conjunction with me have agreed to terminate the services of the keyboard and guitar teachers due to unsatisfactory performance. The last straw was the keyboard teacher not turning up last week for the second time without notifying Music Stars or us. The guitar teachers performance on several issues was unsatisfactory. They have sourced a new teacher who has worked for Music Stars in the past who is a more mature and reliable person. He is able to teach both keyboard guitar. School Council will discuss this tomorrow night and decide whether to continue with the new teacher or whether we should engage a different company.

We have advertised a Education Support position to assist with supervision in the playground and classrooms. They will also have some responsibility for the library. We have shortlisted applicants and will be conducting interviews next Tuesday.

Happy birthday to Ethan for tomorrow. We hope you have a great day.

P - 2 Fynn Collins - For always trying his best and helping others clean up the classroom.
3 - 4 Melissa Salmon - For being an amazing helper in the kitchen. Keep it up.
5 - 6 Amber Horton - For her excellent result in her On Demand Spelling & Mathematics tests.

Congratulations to the following students
Jenna Honeychurch - 25 nights
Harreson Watts - 50 nights
Seth Harris - 75 nights
Dakota Harris - 75 nights
Ryan Brawn - 100 nights
Congratulations to Nea Ferraro for attaining her pen licence.
We wish Tana and Nysa Males well when they compete at the Divisional Cross Country in Bendigo today. Best of luck girls.

School Councillors are reminded that our next meeting is Wednesday week, 10th June at 7:00pm.

There is a large amount of clothing in the lost property bin outside the senior classroom. Not one item has a name on it. There are two plain navy blue zip up jackets which look brand new.

We are continuously picking up clothing in the yard which don’t have names. Please help us help you by labelling your children’s clothing.
We are in the process of arranging an excursion to the National Gallery of Victoria to experience Shifting Gear: Design, innovation and the Australian Car exhibition. We have a booking for the 25th June.

See an explanation below.

In a first for an Australian art institution, the National Gallery of Victoria hosts an exhibition of cars in 2015. Shifting Gear: Design, Innovation and the Australian Car presents some of our most iconic vehicles as objects of art and design. This exhibition celebrates Australia’s important and proud history of automobile design and engineering. It also looks to the future of the automobile industry in this country and the shift from manufacturing, which has primarily serviced a local market, to being a global contributor through specialist expertise.

Shifting Gear: Design, Innovation and the Australian Car traces the development of the family car from its earliest form, as a steam-powered ‘horseless carriage’, through to its present-day role as a major design object and highly refined and efficient means of transport. It presents the stories behind the development of some of the great Australian vehicles and reveals the designers who styled them. It also considers the significant contribution Australian designers and engineers have made, and continue to make, to the car industry through specialist design capacity and expert knowledge.

A permission form will be sent home with the newsletter next week. The cost will be about $25 per student.

Congratulations to the following students who have received a Mathletics certificate

Talarah Kerr, Patrick Keogh, Nea Ferraro, Keira Watts, Clancey McLaughlin, Emma Rose Langdon, Cameron Horton, Grace McLaughlin, Bayley Horton, Declan McLaughlin, Kaydence Martin and Melissa Salmon.